The Overture Group Promotes Bill Wright to Managing Director

CEDAR RAPIDS, IA./LISLE, IL. – June 10, 2021 The Overture Group, a highly respected search and compensation consulting firm, today announced the promotion of Bill Wright to Managing Director. He will have the primary responsibility of executing high level executive searches for our clients as well as finding business development opportunities to expand our practice.

“Bill has been a key part of our success from the beginning, and we are thrilled to promote him to this important position,” said John Liacone, Founder and Managing Director of The Overture group.

Mr. Wright has been an executive search consultant for over 20 years providing executive search and staffing solutions to client leaders. Prior to joining The Overture Group in 2010 as a Director, he was a Manager with RSM McGladrey’s Human Capital practice and Managing Director of his own executive search firm, Wright & Associates.

Bill’s extensive background in working with clients the manufacturing and industrial technologies has made him an expert in finding the next generational leaders for his clients. Working closely with these key decision makers has led to his continued success.

“It is quite an honor to work with such wonderful clients in helping them attract leaders to take them to the next level. I am also very proud to work with all of my outstanding teammates at The Overture Group,” said Wright.

Bill received a Business Administration and Psychology degree from Lindenwood University in St. Charles, MO. Bill is active in his community, currently serving as President of the Streamwood Park District Board. He also serves with area school district U-46 Governing Board for Alignment Collaborative Education, Chairman of the U-46 Alignment Collaborative Education Operating Board and a Junior Varsity Soccer Coach at South Elgin High School. Bill is a member of the German American Chamber of Commerce.
